

NEW JERSEY REVERTING TO G. O. P.

I gave them all and more than they could take. Ignoring the fact that the party in New Jersey has undergone a change of heart, the majority simply believed it was a policy to leave such a plank out of the platform this year.

The same reporter who interviewed Governor Edwards asked him how he would have voted on the recent resolution had he been called upon to make a public expression before the convention.

"If I answer that question," he said, "I will be misconstrued by the public."

Things in Pretty Pass. Things have come to a pretty pass in the Democratic camp when the most ardent advocate of wetness is obliged to submerge his views.

The Republican party itself, hasn't gone on record as bone dry but simply pledges itself to enforce the law. The anti-saloon league would have been better satisfied with some pledge that the Volstead law wouldn't be weakened nationally or that the Republican party would enact state laws to enforce the 18th amendment.

Other Issues. But with New Jersey trying to sidetrack the wet question, what are the other issues? The Democrats privately concede that the Republican press is more influential in the state and that it has said many things about the League of Nations which have appealed to the prejudices of the different elements in the electorate.

For instance, the Irish have been alienated by talk of "A British League." The Germans have their own grievances against the administration that fought a successful war against Germany.

The Italians have been stirred up, too. And many women voters cherish a grudge against the Nugent machine for its opposition to woman suffrage. Put on top of that the undercurrent of restlessness which is prevalent in New Jersey as elsewhere in the country, consider indeed the discontent over the high cost of living and the irritations which are inevitable in a reconstruction period following a war of such magnitude as that through which America has passed, and your conclusion cannot but be that the Democrats have about as much chance to segregate the League of Nations to the exclusion of all else domestic as the proverbial snowball.

New Jersey isn't voting on the League of Nations. Home elements undoubtedly will vote pro and con but fundamentally New Jersey is reverting to Republicanism with not much enthusiasm but as a matter of unemotional expediency.

BEAUTIFUL OCTOBER. Scenery along the Mississippi is unequalled. See the fall foliage Sunday, Sept. 10 from the decks of the big Steamer St. Paul.

McCABE'S GOLDEN JUBILEE

Will Continue All Next Week

---with renewed energy, adding zest and enthusiasm through making possible still greater economies and service.

The entire store force is back of this half-century festivity, exerting every effort to make McCabe's Golden Jubilee (the 50th mile stone on the road to success) one of the most prominent events in Rock Island's merchandising history.

"THE TRUTH IS GOOD ENOUGH" an old adage introduced and lived up to by the founder of this store. Truthfulness is indeed one of the first considerations in the policies of this store's management, and will ever be the watchword of our advertising program and internal operations.

From the little store on the corner of Second avenue and Sixteenth street (formerly the corner of Buffalo and Illinois street) has grown this large department store, the trading center of Rock Island. It is surely gratifying to know that the McCabe store has attained its present large proportions through the channels of honest advertising.

McCABE'S GOLDEN JUBILEE SOUVENIRS ARE VALUABLE and we are especially anxious that every person in Rock Island and vicinity take advantage of this opportunity to the fullest extent of their possibilities.

Every cash purchase counts. When you have made purchases amounting to 1.00 a souvenir coupon will be issued. The bigger the purchase the more valuable the souvenir. You will find much merchandise at lowered prices, in this event you get souvenir coupons just the same.

Attend McCabe's Golden Jubilee each day of next week

Too Weak to Do Anything

The ordinary every-day life of most women is a ceaseless treadmill of work. How much harder the tasks become when some derangement peculiar to her sex makes every movement painful, and keeps the nervous system all unstrung until life seems hardly worth living. Every woman in this condition should profit by the experience of these two women whose letters follow.

Read the Experience of These Two Women

Reading, Pa.—"I had organic inflammation, pains in the side and back which were so sharp that they pulled me to my knees, and I could not walk. I had an operation and still I failed, and in the eight years I suffered I had four doctors and none helped me. My mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was then in bed, and after the first bottle I could be out of bed, then I took Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and also used the Sanative Wash. I still take the medicine and am able now to do my own housework. My friends say, 'My! but you look well—what do you do? Who is your doctor?' And there is only one answer, 'Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines which I gladly recommend.'"

Ailing Women Should Not Experiment—But Insist Upon

Gainesville, Tex.—"For three years I suffered untold agony each month with pains in my side. I found only temporary relief in doctor's medicine or anything else I took until my husband and I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I mentioned it to a neighbor and she told me she had taken it with good results, and advised me to try it. I was then in bed part of the time, and my doctor said I would have to be operated on, but we decided to try the Vegetable Compound, and I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a dressmaker and am now able to go about my work, and do my housework besides. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial as I am always glad to speak of your medicine."
